2. Position outlook for the quarter

Research posture based on earnings durability, valuation sensitivity, macro transmission and portfolio role.

POSITION	QUARTER VIEW	WHAT SUPPORTS IT	WHAT CAN BREAK	FRAMEWORK RESPONSE
Adani Green Energy 30.7% · Power Generation	Execution-led	Renewable capacity expansion and contracted power sales.	Leverage, refinancing cost, execution and valuation sensitivity.	Hold; monitor debt and commissioned capacity before adding.
Eternal 27.8% · E-Commerce	Positive, volatile	Quick-commerce scaling and possible MSCI full-weight restoration.	High-duration valuation, competition, logistics and discretionary-demand risk.	Hold; cap additions while concentration remains elevated.
ICICI Bank 21.5% · Private Sector Bank	Constructive	Liability franchise, loan growth and robust asset quality.	Oil-led inflation, bond yields, NIM pressure and FII selling.	Retain as core; add only after diversification improves.
Bharti Airtel 7.6% · Telecom	Constructive	Tariff/ARPU cycle, recurring revenue and capex moderation.	FII de-risking, capex or competitive intensity.	Portfolio stabiliser; accumulate only on broad corrections.
Axis Bank 4.6% · Private Sector Bank	Constructive	Core bank / result watch	Company-specific execution and valuation risk.	Review against portfolio role after the next result.
JSW Energy 4.3% · Power Generation	Constructive, execution-led	Renewable/storage pipeline and contracted capacity.	Leverage, interest cost and project execution.	Keep small until capacity and debt trajectory are clearer.
L&T Finance 3.5% · Non Banking Financial Company	Constructive	Small hold / watch	Company-specific execution and valuation risk.	Review against portfolio role after the next result.

Brent $100-120

Hormuz disruption

India import-bill, INR, inflation and rate pressure reinforce FII de-risking.

LEADERS

Airtel on relative resilience

LAGGARDS

Aether, Eternal; ICICI multiple sensitivity

RESPONSE

Preserve liquidity and pause high-beta additions until oil and flows stabilise.

FII/DII context

On 10 July, provisional flows were positive: FII +₹2,603.72 crore and DII +₹2,019.68 crore. NSE Market Pulse shows domestic mutual-fund ownership at a record 11.4%, which cushions volatility but does not eliminate oil-INR drawdown risk.
